PRESIDENT JONES: APPEAL. President Jones of the National urgent appeal to all Baptists throughout the nation to read the Union-Review. In this appeal we beg to cooperate, for in doing so we regard that we do the public a benefaction.

The Union-Review is the greatest Negro journal in the United States, it is the greatest church paper in the world among Negroes, it is the greatest Baptist news conveyor in our great commonwealth. If you would know anything Baptistic, if you would catch the news, read the Union-Review, and it will tell you everything regarding the workings of the Baptist and the Baptist church throughout the nation. If you would have the truth of things as it relates to the church, read the Union-neview, for it is not only a newspaper being circulated to make sentiment, but regards the honor and truthfulness of its the development of the church and the spread of the gospel outside of arly, always bearing upon the classiand above successful criticism.
